I find from the Civil list that Mr Rajarathna Mudaliar has not passed the Revenue Examination & the Regn. Examination. In the Govt. order of 2nd April 1907 constituting the new Schedules A & B, the question of the inclusion in Schedule B of officers in the Extra Asst Commrs' grade & officers of parallel grades in the Judicial Police, Survey accounts, & other non technical Depts was considered. It was thought unnecessary to exclude any of the Officers who had not passed all the tests prescribed in Rule VII of the Civil service Rules, but it was stated that "it should, however, be distinctly understood that no such Officer will be eligible for promotion to the Special Grade of Sr Asst Commrs unless he shall have fully qualified himself by passing all the prescribed tests".

NOTE—Contn sheet.

Strictly interpreted this would stand in the way of Mr Rajaratnam mudr's promotion to a Sr Asr ship; unless he passes the Rev & Regn Examinations. In Mr Rajarathna mudr's case however one circumstance has to be considered. ~~Th~~ He has been in ~~Subjgs~~ the grade of Subjudges from 1903 a grade included in the Civil Service under the Rules of 1891. It is thus a matter for consideration whether he & others ~~Subjudges~~ who were Subjudges under the Rules of 1891 before the Civil Service Rules of 28th June 06 were issued should not be placed in Schedule A instead of in Schedule B. If placed in schedule A Mr Rajaratnam mudr would be eligible for promotion to Sr Asr's grade without the necessity of passing the Rev & Regn Exam^rs. The only other officer in a similar position is Mr. Mir Hamza Hussen ~~& others~~ who has been a Subjudge since 1903. He has passed the Rev Exam^r but not the Regn Exam^r

Again as regards the liability of officers of Schedule B to pass the Regn Exams. it has to be noted that this exams was only introduced in Dec 1906 & before that date asst to the tests prescribed for asst comms were Rev. Criminal and Civil Parts I & II. It seems only fair that officers in the asst comm's grade (permit Sub Inspectors from before Dec 1906 shows) not be required to pass the Regn Exams & that under the order of 2 April 07 they should only have to pass the Rev. Criminal & Civil Parts I & II Exams. A similar exemption may also be extended to officers acting as asst comms from before Dec 1906, as their not passing the exams need not stand in the way of their confirmation as asst comms but they may be required to pass it before becoming eligible to be asst comms.

The recommendations of the Council contained in the accompanying extract from the Council Proceedings for filling up the one permanent and two temporary vacancies in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners, caused by the promotion of Mr. Komarasami Naik as Deputy Commissioner and the grant of long leave to Mr. N. Venkata Rao and Mr. V.R.Thyagaraja Iyer, may be sanctioned.

In this connection the Council further recommends, for reasons given, that all permanent Assistant Commissioners in Schedule B as well as Mr. M.G. Krishnaswami Rao and Mr. G. Hanumantha Rao, who, under para 5 of the Government order of 2nd April 1907, although called Assistant Commissioners sub-pro-tem, are for all practical purposes treated as permanent Assistant Commissioners, may be exempted from passing the Registration Examination which was prescribed as a test for Assistant Commissioners only in December 1906. This may also be approved.

Extract from the Proceedings of the 197th Meeting of the Council of His Highness the Maharaja, held at Bangalore on the 8th April 1908.

III. Subject.-(Clause Va of the Schedule).

Promotion of certain officers to the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners.

Opinion of Council.

The Council recommends that the following arrangements may be made to fill up certain temporary and permanent vacancies in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners:

Name.	Nature of promotion.	From.	Remarks.
Mr. A. Subramania Iyer. Sub protem Senior Assistant Commissioner.	Permanent.	23rd March 1908.	Vice Mr.B.J. Kumarasami Naik appointed Deputy Commissioner.
Mr. M.A. Narayana Iyengar. acting Senior Assistant Commissioner.	Sub protem.	23rd March 1908.	Vice Mr.M. Shama Row seconded.
Mr. V.A. Rajaratna Mudaliar. Assistant Commissioner 1st class.	Acting	1st July 1907 to 31st July 1907.	Vice Mr.V.R. Thyagarajier on leave.
	Acting.	1st August 1907.	Vice Mr. M. Venkata Row on leave.
Mr. Mir Humza Husen. Assistant Commissioner 1st class.	Acting	1st August 1907 to 17th November 1907. 27th January 1908.	Vice Mr.V.R Thyagarajier on leave.

In this connection the Council observes that in the Government Order of 2nd April 1907 × it is stated that "all officers who are now permanently in the grades in question, and not merely acting or on probation, will therefore be included in Schedule B without reference to the tests they may still have to pass. It should, however, be distinctly understood that no such officer will be eligible for promotion to the special grade of Senior Assistant Commissioner, unless he shall have fully qualified himself by passing all the prescribed tests." × Under Notification No.5022 dated 12th December 1906 revising and consolidating the rules relating to the Local Service and Pleaders' Examinations, the Revenue (Higher) Criminal (Higher), Civil Parts I & II and Registration are prescribed for Assist-ant Commissioners and if the order of 2nd April 1907 is strictly applied no Assistant Commissioner in Schedule B who has not passed all these tests would be eligible for promotion to the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners. While the Revenue, Criminal & Civil Parts I & II have been laid down as qualifying tests for Assistant Commissioners from the beginning, the

× Flag B

Registration test was prescribed only in December 1906. The passing of the tests was not being strictly insisted upon in the case of Extra Assistant Commissioners and it has come to pass that several Extra Assistant Commissioners (now included in Schedule B) have not even passed the Criminal, Revenue & Civil Part I &. II Examinations. It was principally with a view to secure the passing of these tests that the rule about the non eligibility to promotion to the Senior Assistant Commissioners' grade without passing the tests was laid down in the Government Order of 2nd April 1907.

The Registration test prescribed in December 1906 stands on a somewhat different footing. Though passing it is obligatory on all new recruits whether to Schedule A by competition or to Schedule B by nomination, yet in the case of officers already in the grade of Assistant Commissioners the Government Order of 2nd April 1907 requires officers of Schedule B and not of Schedule A to pass it before being eligible for promotion as Senior Assistant Commissioners. If the rule is strictly observed Messrs. M.A. Narayana Iyengar, Rajaratna Mudaliar & Humza Husen would be ineligible for promotion to Senior Assistant Commissioners till they passed the Registration test and the promotions would go to Messrs. Krishna Iyer, Bowring &c in Schedule A. Such a distinction between permanent officers of the two Schedules, otherwise equally well qualified, does not seem to be desirable, nor does it seem reasonable to require officers in Schedule A mostly recruited by competition under the Civil Service rules of 1891 to pass the Registration Examination newly prescribed for Assistant Commissioners. The Council would therefore recommend that all permanent Assistant Commissioners in Schedule B and the two officers Messrs M.G. Krishnasami Row and G. Hanumantha Row referred to in para 5 of the Government Order of 2nd April 1907 may be exempted from passing the Registration Examination.

Assistant Commissioners of Schedule B who have not passed the Revenue, Criminal & Civil Parts I & II tests will however not be eligible for promotion as Senior Assistant Commissioners under the Government Order of 2nd April 1907, unless they pass such Examinations.

In the case of Mr. V.R. Rajaratna Mudaliar who is recommended for an acting promotion to the Senior Assistant Commissioner's grade, it is further observed that he has not passed the Revenue test. He has however been Registrar of the Chief Court for nearly 14 years and was graded with Sub Judges in 1903. Sub Judges were included in the Civil Service under the rules of 1891 and even though Mr. Rajaratna Mudaliar was placed in Schedule B his case is different from that of Extra Assistant Commissioners, Police Superintendents and Assistant Superintendents and others who did not belong to the Civil Service under the Rules of 1891 and who were admitted into the Civil Service and placed in Schedule B under the Government Order of 2nd April 1907. In the circumstances the Council thinks that he may be promoted to the Senior Assistant Commissioner's grade as recommended.

With reference to the recommendations of the Council submitted with my note of the 13th April 1908 in regard to filling up certain permanent and temporary vacancies in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners, I submit the accompanying revised list of promotions due up to date, which has been verified by the Comptroller and approved by both the Councillors.

The promotions recommended in the list may be sanctioned.

In this connection the Council also recommended that all permanent Assistant Commissioners of Schedule B as well as the two sub-pro-tem Assistant Commissioners, Messrs. M.G. Krishnaswami Rao and G. Hanumantha Rao may be exempted from passing the Registration test. It is however found unnecessary to give this exemption to Mr. Krishnaswami Rao and Mr. Hanumantha Rao. The former has passed the special Registration examination held last month and it has been ascertained that the latter passed the Revenue examination when it included Registration (Vide Rule 7(c) of the Local Service Examinations). It is also not proposed to exempt any acting Assistant Commissioners from passing the Registration test. The exemption need therefore be sanctioned only in the case of all permanent Assistant Commissioners of Schedule B.
